NEWS RELEASE

Gatineau, Quebec, June 17, 2010- The Best Western Cartier in Gatineau, Quebec has received the Best Western Director's Award for outstanding quality standards for the third consecutive year. The Director's Award recognizes Best Western International hotels with a cleanliness and maintenance inspection score of at least 950 points out of a possible 1,000. Hotels must also meet Best Western's requirements for design and high customer service scores to qualify for the distinction.

"The fact that we received our third director's award in three years is a testament to the hard work of our employees" according to Hotel General Manager Martin Fogarty. "Our guests have been telling us for some time through surveys and comments we are delivering what they expect. This third award continues to motivate us to work even harder to consistently to provide a great product and also to continue to improve upon it."

Located at 131 rue Laurier in Gatineau's Hull sector, the Best Western Cartier features 133 guest rooms and suites and offers complimentary amenities such as wireless high speed internet, a business center, a workout facility and a heated indoor swimming pool. The hotel also features just under 5000 square feet of meeting space over 4 meeting and reception rooms, suitable for groups from 10-270 people.

The Best Western Cartier is the region's only waterfront hotel offering clients breathtaking views of Canada's capital and the Parliament buildings and is ideally located on the door step of the Canadian Museum of Civilization.

For reservations, call the hotel directly at (819)-770-8550 or toll free (Canada and USA) 800-265-8550. Reservations may also be made via our website at www.bwcartier.ca.
